FERGUSON RALLY HERE FRIDAY NIGHT; W. H. BLANTON TO SPEAK

Cotton Marketing Movement Is Now Under Way

MOODY FLAYS FERGUSON IN ADDRESS IN CAMERON

BLANTON TO SPEAK HERE FOR GOV. FERGUSON

NOTED TEXAS ORATOR TO URGE CANDIDACY OF MRS. FERGUSON FRIDAY NIGHT

W. H. Blanton of San Antonio, noted Texas orator, will speak at the Ferguson rally on Friday night, July 27, 1926 on the court house lawn.

In a telephone conversation, Thursday with Mr. Blanton he assured the Milam County Ferguson Club that he would be here to deliver an address.

This will not change any of the plans for the big Democratic rally except it will add to its attractive features. Mr. Blanton is one of the best speakers in Texas and the committee in charge of the arrangements feels jubilant over the success in securing him for a speech here.

Circulars have gone out over the county advertising the rally. They were printed in advance of the arrangements with Mr. Blanton but this development will be a pleasing feature of the big rally.

Many thousands are expected to be on the court house lawn when the band begins its concert here at 7:30. This will be the last rally of the campaign and a great political message will be brought to the people of the county.

LOCAL SPEAKERS TO BE ON PROGRAM IN CAMERON

EXPECT LARGE CROWD TO HEAR ISSUES OF CAMPAIGN DISCUSSED

Friends and supporters of Governor Ferguson will hold a big rally on the court house lawn Friday night, August 27, 1926.

This will be the final rally of the run off primary campaign and local speakers will address the people and discuss the issues in the campaign.

The program of speakers will include men well known to the people. It is planned that the gathering shall be one of a get together for friends and neighbors and there will be informal speeches as well as a well defined program.

The public is invited to attend. The rally will be held on the court house lawn and there will be plenty of seats.

The municipal band will start a concert at 7:30 o'clock and continue until 8 o'clock when the speaking begins.

Those in charge of the Ferguson campaign in the county are unanimous in their judgement for a Home Folks rally, a meeting with much of the formalities of former occasions set aside. It is to be a meeting in which everybody will be at liberty to take part and various ones will be called on to talk.

The program which will close the campaign in Milam county will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

BIG TIRE SALE ON

W. B. Denson of the Post Office Service Station is putting on a big sale of Federal Tires. In a circular advertising new prices Mr. Denson makes quotations that are interesting to prospective tire buyers.

Mr. Denson has a fine line of these tires and any make of car can be served from this stock. Recently Mr. Denson established storage at his garage, making a convenient place for cars to be kept over night.

BLOODHOUNDS TO BE USED IN HUNT FOR A. W. BONDS

Belton, Aug. 25.—Bloodhounds will be brought into use here Friday in an effort to locate Albert W. Bonds, wanted for the murder of Wiley Fisher of Temple and who has been evading the hands of the law for almost a week.

This announcement was made at the sheriff's office tonight. The dogs, several in number and considered the finest in the state, will be brought from the Bassett Blakeley convict farm near Rosenberg. That the Bell county officials believe Bonds may be hiding in the mountainous section about 20 miles southwest of here is augmented by the fact that the bloodhounds will be brought here to assist in the hunt.

Sheriff Bigham and deputies have been in frequent communication with the sheriff's departments of Williamson, Burnett and Lampasas counties and the various roads leading from that section where Bonds is believed to have been carefully watched. Sheriff Lewis Lowe of Williamson county was here early this morning and it is known that he is lending his efforts to apprehend Bonds. Sheriff C. S. Shipp of Burnett county has been equally active as have a number of their leading officers of the state.

Rich New Yorker In Bequest To Cameron Girl

A fortune, indicated by bequests to run into millions, will be shared in by Miss Jesse Loewenstein of Cameron, according to a letter received here Monday by Mrs. Sarah Loewenstein from a firm of New York lawyers.

The letter advises Miss Jesse Loewenstein that a relative, Mr. Fatmann of New York had remembered her in his last will which was admitted to probate there last week.

Miss Jesse Loewenstein has gone to Abilene for a visit and her mother here says that the firm of Kirby, King and Overshiner, lawyers, have asked her to accept employment in their office.

The Mr. Fatmann of New York was a relative of Harry Loewenstein, father of Miss Jesse. In the will more than 30 institutions of learning and charity were remembered. Some of the bequests were made to institutions in England. Harry Loewenstein was born and reared at St. Joe Missouri and has two sisters, Libby Loewenstein and Libby Loewenstein at Cincinnati.

Miss Jesse Loewenstein has taken up the matter with the attorneys in New York but nothing is known of the amount given her in the will of her rich relative.

NO 2 CASH AND CARRY

Jeff Hefley is soon to establish the Jeff Hefley Cash and Carry No. 2 in the Odd Fellows building north of the post office. This store will carry a full line of groceries and a first class meat market.

The building has been painted white inside and fixtures are being installed ready for the goods. A feature of this store will be parking space at the side for housewives who wish to drive down in their car. Mr. Hefley will sell chickens and all kinds of produce.

This meat market will be in charge of Mr. D. B. Worcester. Mr. Hefley will run this store with the same force he now has and will give the customer the benefit of any saving in overhead he may effect.

Ed. House of Port Arthur visited relatives and friends this week. He was gladly welcomed by his old neighbors and friends of his childhood. He lived near Cameron all his life until he went to Port Arthur to make his home six years ago.

NEAR 300 BALES ARE GINNED IN CAMERON

PICKING GOING FORWARD RAPIDLY—BETTER CROP THAN FIRST EXPECTED

Up to noon Thursday it is estimated that about 300 bales of the 1926 cotton crop had been ginned and marketed here.

While no figures could be obtained from any of the gins or the compress as they do not give out this information, well informed men estimated the total as above.

Conditions have improved, it is said in some sections of the cotton crop and generally the sand portions of the county have good crops on them. In some sections the black land will not produce any crop this year.

Generally the farm conditions are much better than expected. Merchants are looking forward to a good business this fall.

A. T. ROBINSON, PIONEER CITIZEN IS BURIED

CONFEDERATE SOLDIER AND LONG RESIDENT OF TEXAS ANSWERS LAST CALL

Mr. A. T. Robinson, aged 82, an honored citizen of Minerva, passed away after a decline of several weeks and was buried in the Minerva Cemetery at 4:30 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, August 24, 1926. A large concourse of friends and relatives were present for the obsequies. Many beautiful flowers were sent and an evergreen wreath with Confederate flags was placed as a memorial tribute by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mr. Alexander Thomas Robinson was born in Abbeville county, South Carolina on January 11, 1844. His parents were strict Presbyterians and brought up their family in the nurture and admonition of the Lord with a strict observance of the Sabbath Day of which Mr. Robinson did not depart during his eighty-two years of life. When a boy he became a member of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church and subscribed for his church paper published at Due West, South Carolina, to the day of his death.

At the outbreak of the Civil War Mr. Robinson enlisted in the South Carolina Cavalry and furnished his own horse. He served with valor and faithfulness until the surrender of Lee.

On February 21, 1865 he was married to Miss Frances Ethridge. They lived in South Carolina until they came to Texas twenty-seven years ago. They lived two years near Marlow then at their homestead near Minerva.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were the parents of twelve children. Mrs. Robinson died in March 1920 and their son W. A. Robinson died in March 1919. Those surviving Mr. Robinson are his three sons, A. F. Robinson of Hanover, D. F. Robinson and D. E. Robinson of Minerva, one daughter, Mrs. Charles Terry of Cameron, eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Mr. Robinson was remarkably healthy. Since he recovered from typhoid fever during the Civil War he had never been under the care of a physician until recently. He had a bronchial trouble which kept him away from church services in his later years. Mr. Robinson was a constant reader of the Scriptures and a favorite passage was the twenty-third psalm.

Miss Mary Burns has gone for a visit to friends in Eagle Lake.

JACK T. FOLMER

Jack T. Folmer, 65, who died after a long illness from heart ailment, was a pioneer citizen of the county, residing at Gause for a number of years where he owned farming interests and where as a father he reared a family of estimable children.

Mr. Folmer was born in Pike county, Alabama about 65 years ago. He was married to Miss Minnie Pool. To this union was born a large family of children. They are J. B. Clifton, William, Monroe and Tom Folmer, and daughters Mesdames Spraggins, Manville, Fowler; and Erwin, now deceased. The members of the family are widely separated but several came to visit Mr. Folmer during his last illness.

The funeral was conducted by the Masonic lodge of which he was a member. W. G. Gillis of Cameron was master of ceremonies.

Rev. Mr. Henson of Branchville Baptist church preached the funeral and the Cameron masonic lodge performed the burial rites.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Glen Critchfield, J. A. Ely, Jr., Lyd Cunningham, Lyn Bowling, W. B. Cochran and Zoll Henseley.

Mr. Folmer had many friends being of a jovial disposition. He moved to Gause in 1909 and purchased the Joe Fowler farm and later purchased a large tract from the Baskin interests. ### BUY YOUR COAL NOW

Royal P. Jeter of the Jeter Lumber Company is busily engaged this week in the annual drive of this popular firm to guarantee the people against fuel shortage. It will be of interest to the people to read in this issue an advertisement of the Jeter Lumber Company on the coal situation.

Mr. Jeter is one of the best ad writers in Texas and his ads are always interesting and to the point. He has booked a large consignment of coal here this week and expects the sale of other large quantities. Mr. Jeter avoids the role of a weather prophet by quoting someone else, but says the authorities agree that this will be a long and hard winter.

Mrs. A. Bryan, Misses Myrtle Mae Huddleston and Ruth McGuire spent last Sunday in Rosebud.

ATTORNEY GENERAL IN MILAM CO. CAMPAIGN

RIDICULES CIRCULAR PUT OUT BY FERGUSON CLUB CHARGING KLAN SUPPORT OF HIM

One of the largest crowds ever assembled for a political speech in the history of Milam County was in Cameron Wednesday night to hear Dan Moody, attorney general and candidate for governor.

The program of reception for the young attorney general included a delegation to Bryan where he spoke in the afternoon. W. G. Gillis, local attorney, presided at the meeting and in a brief speech attacked the Ferguson forces for the circulation of a printed address to the Democrats of the county charging Klan support for Moody. He named over a number of men who fought the Klan that are now supporting Mr. Moody.

John E. Cooke of the Rockdale Reporter, made a five minute talk urging the election of Mr. Moody. T. S. Henderson then introduced Mr. Moody in a two minute talk predicting the fall of Jim Ferguson on next Saturday and the rise of Dan Moody to fame.

Mr. Moody when he came forward to begin his speech took the Ferguson folks to task for the circular which was distributed in the crowds as the people assembled. He stated it was an anonymous and exposed of Mr. Moody the union label which was along the signed by Fergusonism and son Club. Theorists is the issue.

GUY DRAPER'S ORCHESTRA TO PLAY AT WAYSIDE FRIDAY

E. C. Cammer, manager of Wayside Inn, announces that he has engaged Guy Draper and his orchestra of Waco to play for the dance on Friday night. This orchestra is probably the best one that has played for any dance in the vicinity of Cameron this summer. They played to a large crowd at Wayside Inn two weeks ago and the crowd Friday night is expected to be one of the best of the year.

The fame of Wayside Inn is becoming widespread and many people from different parts of Central Texas are visiting this pleasure resort for the dances, picnics and camps. It is only a short drive from town so crank up and drive out some night for a few hours of real fun.

Miss Eloise Rogers visited Mrs. McCullum in Waco the past week-end.

NEW HIGHWAY THROUGH ROCKDALE IS DESIGNATED

WILL CONNECT WITH SEVEN
OTHER HIGHWAYS SAYS
ROCKDALE REPORTER

According to H. C. Meyer, president of the Rockdale Commercial Club, the Highway Commission, upon application of the different towns along the line, has designated a highway from Caldwell in Burleson county, through Rockdale and San Gabriel in Milam county, Bartlett in Bell county, Schwertner and Florence in Williamson county, and Bertram in Burnet county. The highway is subject to state aid and will be taken over for maintenance when certain conditions are complied with.

This action was made at a meeting of the Highway Commission at Austin, Tuesday, August 17, at which time citizens representing the various towns concerned were present. At the meeting Rockdale and Caldwell had only one representative each, towns each sent from ten to fifteen representatives.

This new highway will connect with other important highways in surrounding counties, as follows: With 43 and 44, at Rockdale; 36 at Caldwell; 2-B at Bartlett; 2 at Jarrell; 74, at Florence; and highway No. 29 at Bertram.

Work on locating the route and actual survey work under the direction of the division engineer will be under way in the near future, at which time an accurate map will be prepared. In the interest of this work Mr. Meyer, as president of the Commercial Club, has appointed a committee of Dr. H. T. Coulter, Lon Hudson and Harry Perry to arrange with the Division and County Engineers to make the survey, make actual location of route, and to prepare for an 80 foot roadway from Rockdale to the Burleson county line, and from Rockdale to what is known as the new bridge on the San Gabriel river.

The committee has also been instructed to provide ways and means to cover the necessary expenses of the surveys, and to prepare maps.

CROP ESTIMATE PREMATURE

G. A. Williamson, who for the past twenty years has made a study of crop conditions and furnishes estimates from time to time each year by the request of the agricultural department bureau of estimates, says he has recently made extensive trips over the Thorndale trade territory and gives it as his opinion that estimates being made as to the cotton production in this section at the present time are but little short of mere guesses. Mr. Williamson says it is too early to estimate the cotton crop, and in view of the fact that there yet remains time for a change either way—better or worse—he thinks we could save ourselves needless worry at this time by "waiting until we reach the bridge before we try to cross it." Judge Williamson thinks prospects now indicate at least a better yield than current reports indicate.—Thorndale Champion.

J. M. Gilchrist, W. T. and E. A. Johnson have returned from a fishing trip to Port Aransas and report great sport catching Spanish mackerel, tarpon and a very large shark. The first day they went out on the gulf they caught 355 pounds of Spanish Mackerel, four tarpon and a shark weighing about 65 pounds. They enjoyed riding the gulf waves and the fight with the tarpons in attempting to get them in the boat after hanging them with their hooks.—Thorndale Champion.

Dr. James Watson of Cameron was with the party from Thorndale in the delightful trip to the gulf and the fishing grounds. Dr. Watson was spending his vacation. He liked the tang of the sea and the thrill of the mackerel fishing. He tells an interesting story of the old salts who make their living by fishing; how they go out each day to the fishing grounds and bring in their catch for the day and sell them for cash. Except for sea sickness among certain of the party the trip was pleasant in every way.

THORNDALE BUSINESS MEN VISIT HIGHWAY DEPT. IN INTEREST NEW ROAD

C. Saller, Jones Clement and G. S. Summerlin made another trip to Austin on Tuesday to confer with the Highway Department and if possible speed up the work of closing the gap in Highway 43 between the Williamson county line, through Thorndale and to the Rockdale precinct line east of town, about six miles of road. This committee representing the Thorndale Commercial Club expected to ask for an immediate appropriation for actual construction of this section of the highway but due to a delay in getting certain papers prepared and in the hands of the highway officials the appropriation could not be considered only in a tentative manner. The effort was not without benefit and the delay will be overcome and another effort will be made in a short time.—Thorndale Champion

The years have proved, and each year proves anew, that Dodge Brothers are as deeply concerned with the UNSEEN goodness of their motor car, as with the seen.

CONCENTRATION OF PRISON SYSTEM IN WILLIAMSON COUNTY IS PLANNED BY MOODY SUPPORTERS, GOVERNOR SAYS

Austin, Tex., Aug. 23.—Relocation of the prison system in Williamson county, home county of Attorney General Dan Moody—is being planned by Moody supporters, Governor Miriam A. Ferguson charged here Monday.

Governor Ferguson vetoed the bill of the 39th legislature, providing for concentration of the prison system within 75 miles of Austin.

"This scheme would cost the people more than ten million dollars clear loss and somebody will make a profit out of it that would make any road contract look like thirty cents," the governor said.

Her statement follows in part:

"In the closing week of this campaign, I want to emphasize my platform declaring that I shall oppose any attempt to remove the prison location of the penitentiary system and to warn the people of what is in store for the taxpayers if Mr. Moody should be elected. It will be remembered that I vetoed the bill passed by the last legislature providing for the sale of the eighty thousand acres of land now owned by the prison system and to re-locate the state penitentiary within seventy-five miles of Austin.

"This veto was distinctly a Ferguson veto and is Fergusonism in its most pronounced form. Mr. Moody is in favor of the law, and I have just been informed that all members of the legislature from his home (Williamson) county, are to present the bill to the legislature, again relying upon Mr. Moody to approve the bill if he is elected governor."

The statement continued to say that the governor understands options have been arranged or agreed upon for 10,000 acres in the vicinity of Round Rock, the price to be demanded being $200 an acre.

"This will be an initial investment to be settled on the state of $2,000,000, and it will require at least 40,000 acres to provide employment for all the convicts. The additional acreage comprising 30,000 acres will have to be acquired by the state to complete the re-location," the governor said.

"So it is already planned in this re-location law to tax the people at least $8,000,000 for the land alone and to erect buildings to take care of the then it will cost $2,000,000 additional prison population.

"The scheme then is to offer the 80,000 acres of land now owned by the prison system at whatever price it will bring," the governor asserted, but she believes the land will not bring anything like its real value as buildings will not be suitable for private use.

If re-elected she will veto any law attempting to re-locate the prison as planned before, the governor said.

Mrs. Holder of Rowena; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holder and family of Rowena; Mr. Mack Dunham of Port Arthur; Mr. and Mrs. Jite McCoy, Misses Jeta McCoy and Jewell Dickson of Temple; Mrs. Ray Cravy and family of Georgetown; Miss Emma Dunham of Austin and others whose names were not learned.

Miss Edna Estella Dunham was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Dunham of Duncan. She was born October 14, 1908. She attended school at home later going to school at Temple where she attended school for one term and later to the Cameron high school for two years where she received her diploma in 1925. She attended Trinity University at Waco last year and made plans to return on the twenty-first of September. From her "Big Sister" in college her parents received a letter of sympathy and love and her college class sent to Mr. and Mrs. Dunham and little daughter Marie a letter of condolence and a floral tribute of affection for one of their brightest members.

At Sharpe this summer, as always, she had been taking an active interest in the work of the Christian Endeavor work.

Her short life is complete. It was a brief beautiful period that she spent here inspiring all who knew her and loved her to higher things.

TWO PIECE DRESSES ARE STILL IN VOGUE; MRS. HEARRELL COMMENTS

The two piece dress is still a marked trend in wearing apparel according to Mrs. Lola Hearrell of the Specialty Shop who has just returned from the markets where she purchased a large stock of goods for fall and winter. Commenting on the two piece dress and the colors, Mrs. Hearrell said:

"First one declares that the two piece dress will be out except for sports, and then another. But one and another are both wrong, because there are still countless numbers of them in sight. Of course they are by no means as predominant as they once were, but there are enough of them to say that they are correct for afternoon wear and for evening wear. Those which are designed for evening wear, however, are quite deceptive, as one can't tell until one examines them closely, that they are two piece dresses.

"The gilet, the bolero, the peplum, the tunic, tiers, the redingote—all, all will have their moments this season.

"The red end of the spectrum is in for it this season—from all shades of pink for evening wear to a deep wine for coats, dresses and hats (especially good in velvet). Chanel red is a new shade—one of the deep, dull reds. Most of the reds are of a dullish nature.

"Green comes next in point of popularity—black we will have with us relieved by touches of white or pink, as well as navy blue."

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

ON HOUSEHOLD BUDGETS

"Aunt Emmy," asked Helen, "won't you explain what is meant by a household budget? You said something the other day about budgets, but I don't seem clear in my mind about it."

"A budget is simply a plan," said Aunt Emmy. "You plan what you are going to do with your income. You divide your income systematically so that you can meet your needs. You lay aside a part of your income for rent, other parts for food, clothing, heat, light, telephone, recreation, savings and so on."

"How are you going to know how much you should spend for each thing—on rent for instance, Aunt?" asked Helen.

"Experts have studied the question carefully and have worked out budgets to suit every income. Of course, you can alter these typical budgets slightly to suit your particular needs. For example, the average budget that covers incomes of from $2,000 to $10,000 a year divides your income into six parts. Ten per cent for savings, twenty per cent for rent, twenty per cent for food, twenty per cent for what is called betterment and includes education, amusement, entertainment, books, music, sports; fifteen per cent for clothes and fifteen per cent for operating expenses."

"No matter how you change the other items you must not change the savings allowance—except to increase it. A great majority of men who reach sixty are dependent on relatives or charity. If they had saved only ten cents out of every dollar, they would not have been in that plight. There is nothing like money in the savings bank to help you through the emergencies that come in everybody's life. If everybody kept one year's income in the savings bank, much misery would be averted. If you always have enough money to see you through one year, you are pretty safe. Beyond that, it is wise to let your money accumulate until you have enough to buy some good securities. Your banker will advise you about the securities that suit your needs."

"But, Aunt Emmy, suppose you wanted to alter your budget?" inquired Helen. "How would you know how to do it? A young married couple might start on a certain budget and then, when they had children to feed and educate, they might want to change it."

"Well, my dear, if they were in doubt about their financial affairs, they could always consult their banker. That is why it is so good to establish friendly relations with a bank when you start out in life. Any banker will be glad to advise young people about making their money go farther."

WHAT THE FEDERAL RESERVE HAS DONE FOR BUSINESS

What the Federal Reserve System has done for business is summed up in these points: It has (1) given business greater confidence in the ability of the banks to care for credit needs; (2) introduced an elastic currency and eliminated money panics; (3) eliminated extreme seasonal fluctuations in rates of interest; (4) brought business safely through the war and post-war crises; (5) saved millions of dollars to business through its efficient system for check collection; (6) made the gold reserve more effective as a basis for credit extension in times of extraordinary demand; (7) aided in the financing of foreign and domestic trade by developing a discount market for acceptances; (8) provided a means for handling huge financial operations of the government without interference with business; (9) aided in the re-establishment of the gold standard abroad; (10) given us an experienced banking organization which will assist us in meeting the future exigencies of business at home and abroad with courage and confidence.

BANKERS EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION TRUSTEES

John H. Puellcher, former president of the American Bankers Association, has been named chairman of the board of trustees of the American Bankers Association Educational Foundation for which $500,000 has been pledged by the bankers to provide for scholarships and research in economics in colleges throughout the country. The other trustees are Leonard P. Ayers, Vice-President Cleveland Trust Company; Stephen I. Miller, Educational Director American Institute of Banking; Lewis E. Pierson, Chairman Irving Bank-Columbia Trust Company, New York; George E. Roberts, Vice-President National City Bank, New York; Francis H. Sisson, Vice-President Guaranty Trust Company, New York; Evans Woolen, President Fletcher Savings & Trust Company, Indianapolis; W. Espey Albis, Deputy Manager American Bankers Association, Secretary.

SEARCH HILL COUNTRY FOR SLAYER OF FISHER

A. W. BONDS, FORMER SHERIFF
STILL AT LARGE AFTER SHOOTING

Belton, Aug. 21.—There is an almost inaccessible country in the southwest part of Bell County known as "The Rough." It is variously designated as on the road to the south of Jarrell, or near Crow's ranch.

"The Rough," mountains and gullies, creviced with creek beds, has swallowed Albert W. Bonds, once sheriff of Bell county, now wanted for the murder of Wiley Fisher, city marshal of Temple, in front of the Eads Undertaking parlors on Central avenue, in Belton, Friday morning. From out of the mystery which attends his disappearance the silent message of "good-bye," written on the back of an old envelope to his wife, alone remains as any intimation of what has become of the man who shortly before noon yesterday fired three times with an automatic shotgun at the Temple city marshal, mortally wounding him.

Dated "Friday evening," and addressed to "my dear wife and boys," it read, "am leaving this note for you. How I wish I could see you. Can't give up here and be murdered, must leave country and give up in another country when protection is arranged for. Don't worry any more than possible. My friends will see after you. I will be with good friends. Sorry I can't be at Jack's funeral. Tell mother to stand it the best she can. We are surely having our share of trouble. Tell my darling boys hello. Tell them to be good boys. Tell my friends hello. Hoping things will work out o. k., I am, lovingly, Daddy."

Car Points to 'Roughs'

This note was tucked in the steering wheel of Bond's Ford car which was found late last night about a mile this side of Jarrell on the main Temple to Austin highway, its front pointed down a lane towards the rough country of Crow's ranch, in the direction it had been driven westward along the highway.

A garage man at Jarrell first identified the car as Bond's about midnight Friday. He reported his find to Constable Whitten Woodward at Jarrell, who took it into his possession this morning, and after telephoning the contents of the note to Mrs. Bonds at Belton, turned the machine over to A. W. Bonds, Jr., the former sheriff's 14-year old son, who was driven by a friend to Jarrell upon receipt of word the car had been picked up.

Don't Want To Be Killed

And so the man who pumped three charges of buckshot into the body of Wiley Fisher doesn't "want to be murdered." He is, according to his note, going to some country "when protection is arranged for" and is sorry he can't be "at Jack's funeral." Jack was his brother, a member of the marine corps, recently deceased. He made no mention of a regret that he could not be at Wiley Fisher's funeral, failed to mention that Mrs. Fisher, Wiley's widow, and her ten children, "are surely having their share of trouble," and he wants his boys "to be good boys," and he says hello to his friends and hopes things will work out o. k. and lastly he remains, despite the act for which he now is sought, "lovingly daddy."

May Be Headed To Mexico

Verily, the note is a subject for deep study by psychologists. It has been stated about that "the rough" has swallowed Albert Bonds, That's what the majority of Belton and Temple think, but the killing of Wiley Fisher and the escape, be it permanent or temporary, of Albert Bonds, has now reached the gossip and rumor stage.

One is told emphatically that Albert Bonds is not in the rough. That he drove in his Ford car to the lane this side of Jarrell last night, was picked up in a high powered car by friends and is now close to the Mexican border. Others believed he got to San Saba and there entered the high-powered car. There is a definite look-out under progress in the vicinity of Nolanville.

May Reveal Self

The belief persists Albert Bonds will be heard from of his own accord. It is reasoned this way: Feeling soon dies down; there's an election coming on. Let people get to thinking about something else. Wiley Fisher's body will be under six feet of clay by Sunday night. His beloved ones will never forget Wiley Fisher, but in a degree the majority will. Wait a while, if you were Albert Bonds. Give the heart time to cool if you were Albert Bonds. Then give up. Better than going to Mexico. Better than running the immigration ganuntlet, but let things cool down. If you were Albert Bonds, with lots of friends in Belton and Bell county even now are helping you.

But that's not here nor there. Albert Bonds is "there"—somewhere—but sheriff Bingham and his deputies and the Temple posse don't know. How they wish they did know where he was.

Circles Death Spot Twice

Albert Bonds, who killed Wiley

Fisher, drove around the Belton city block twice before he shot his victim. The specified details of the killing are being told in Belton now as eye witness after eye witness is interrogated at the court of inquiry. In brief, this is what happened: It was about ten o'clock Friday morning when Bonds was first seen in his car in front of the Belton National Bank. Other witnesses testify he drove around the block in front of the Eads undertaking parlors once; that this time Wiley Fisher was inside with the Burchell children that they might have a last look upon the face of their dead mother, victim of an automobile accident two days before. Then Bonds drove around the block the second time.

Fires Second Shots

As he approached the Eads place, again Wiley Fisher was just helping the Burchell children into a Ford automobile. Bonds slowed down and began firing. Fisher shoved his wife to safety and fell mortally wounded in the left side of his back. Bonds drove to the Duffy filling station and got four gallons of gas, but as his order was being filled he stood on the curb, shotgun in hand, and watched for pursuers. None came. Sheriff Bigham had been in Bartlett, but he was recalled presently, according to George Eads, who met him on the Jail house lawn, gun in hand, as he returned from taking Wiley Fisher's body to the hospital.

'Is Wiley Dead?'

"Is Wiley dead?" asked the sheriff.

"Yes. Is that his gun?" asked the undertaker.

But it wasn't Bonds' gun; it was Bigham's gun waiting for Bonds but Bonds had a fifteen minute start, and was away.

Sheriff Bigham was waiting, gun in hand, for Bonds, and there are those in Belton who will tell you that if Bigham, alone, had met Bonds, it would have been a death and that Bonds was especially anxious to know whether Bigham or his deputies, Clarence Johnson and Albert McKay, were in pursuit. That's hearsay.

Bonds was last seen in the country of Crow's ranch in the rough country at noon Friday, but which road he took to get there or where he went afterward, and how he got his car to the main highway near Jarrell, that it with the note to his wife, might be returned—that's conjecture in the detail now.

This has been a day of pursuit, actual and the official, for sheriff Bigham's and his deputies' description of Bonds has been telegraphed and broadcast, but it is a blank wall. So far Bonds has covered his tracks. At 5 o'clock Sun. afternoon a public funeral at Temple theatre observed last rites for Wiley Fisher. After that day—well feeling cools, maybe, and maybe Bonds will return.

Less Meat If Kidneys Bother

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats too much meat can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Big meat eating may develop uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood; then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleepiness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications.

TOM HARRIS IS SHOT BY FORMER DEPUTY

SHOOTING OCCURS IN ROGERS
SATURDAY AFTERNOON—
HARRIS WILL RECOVER

Rogers, Aug. 21.—Chalk up another shotgun affair for Bell county within 36 hours.

The last one, much of the same fashion as that which ended in the death of Wiley Fisher, Temple city marshal, at Belton, Friday. A man drives up in a Ford car in front of Scroggins' store on the main street of Rogers. Another man is standing on the curb, said to be unarmed. The Ford driver slows down his car and begins firing from an automobile with a shotgun. Former sheriff Albert Bonds fired three charges at Wiley Fisher, Friday, but the style slumped down to two in Rogers at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The victim, Tom Harris, fell under wounds believed to be mortal and was rushed to a hospital at Temple. Sheriff Bigham stopped his efforts to apprehend Albert Bonds long enough to get Charlie Brown, who is held to have fired the shots which felled Harris. Both are farmers living at Bryant Station, in Milam County. Six weeks ago it is reported they had a shooting duel on the streets of Buckholts, in which both were wounded.

In the gun fight six weeks ago Brown was shot in the back with a shotgun as he lay on the lawn at the Harris home, it was said. After receiving this wound Brown gained a sitting position and shot Harris thru the left leg. Brown lay in the hospital for several weeks and is said to have lost use of his legs and has sustained permanent injuries otherwise.

Brown drove slowly down the street with his son at the wheel of the Ford car. Harris stood at the curb not more than 25 feet away when Brown opened fire. He fired two shots from an automatic shotgun loaded with buckshot. Harris, knocked down by the charges got up from the ground and ran 50 feet down the street to the Jackson drug store and fell inside. He lay on the floor bleeding for about 20 minutes when he was taken by automobile to a hospital in Temple.

Eighteen buckshot were removed from Harris' body and limbs. Six shots entered his left knee, several shots penetrated his left shoulder from the rear, one shot pierced his back and one shot entered the stomach.

Harris showed exceptional nerve, for after having laid there in the drug store for 20 minutes and with eighteen shot in him, got up and walked to the door where he was carried out by friends.

The shooting occurred on a busy street. Panic reigned for a few minutes. Three other persons were wounded by shot from the gun as they hit the pavement and scattered about.

As a result of the shooting here six weeks ago both Harris and Brown are under $1,000 bond and have been charged with assault and intent to murder. The case awaits the action of the grand jury.

At the time of the first shooting Mr. Brown was a deputy sheriff but has not been an officer since the trouble.

Watch Elimination!

Good Health Depends Upon Good Elimination.

RETENTION of bodily waste in the blood is called a "toxic condition." This often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. Thousands have learned to assist their kidneys by drinking plenty of pure water and the occasional use of a stimulant diuretic. 50,000 users give Doan's signed endorsement. Ask your neighbor!

DEEP TEST WELL ON R. L. BATTE FARM

TO DRILL SOUTH OF CAMERON

Rockdale, Texas, Aug. 21.—The next deep test for oil in the Edwards lime in Milam County will be Alexander and Lyle, Inc., No. 1 R. L. Batte on the Batte "Riverside" farm, nearly six miles due south of Cameron, and four and one-half miles northeast of the Alexander and Lyle, Inc., No. 1 August Seelke wildcat test of last May. The location is 150 feet from the banks of Little River, and just north of the point of confluence of San Gabriel and Little Rivers. The test will be on an eighty-acre block out of the Sicily Threadgill 324-acre tract, and will be drilled under contract with R. L. Batte with a block-up of about 2,500 acres owned by Batte. It is a one-test deal, the test to go to fifty feet into the Edwards lime. Mr. Batte is owner of one of the largest blocks of land in Milam County.

The location for the new test is slightly less than a half mile southwest of the "discovery" well in the Rockdale-Minerva shallow pool, which was drilled on the southeast bank of Cattail Creek about 200 yards from the creek's confluence with Little River, and brought in February 17, 1921. It was drilled by Sam Hohenstein and the Oklahoma Bell Company. A few hundred yards northwest of the No. 1 Batte deep test location, about ten years ago, six shallow wells were drilled on the Batte Riverside farm by the Underwriters Company, and oil is flowing out of each of these shallow holes today. It was the showing of oil in these shallow holes ten years ago which, it is claimed, led ultimately to the development of the Rockdale-Minerva and the Rockdale shallow pools, the two combined producing areas now covering nine miles, with 1,300 barrels daily yield.

A 120-foot derrick is up at No. 1 Batte location and rig and tools are being shipped in by truck from Luling by Sullivan and Overton of that place, who have taken a turnkey contract to complete the test.

Structure on which Alexander and Lyle, Inc., has contracted to drill the No. 1 Batte deep test was first worked out two years ago by Lloyd North, chief field geologist for the Texas Company, this work being later checked by Walter Goldston of Dallas and San Angelo, independent geologist employed last winter by the operating firm, whose headquarters are in Dallas. The Humble Oil and Refining Company's geological staff has checked the structure.

Major companies of Texas interested with Alexander and Lyle, Inc., in making the No. 1 Batte test, with checkerboarded acreage assignments, are the Texas Company, Sun Oil Company, Gulf Production Company, Humble Oil and Refining Company, Pure Oil Company, Godley Oil and Gas Company and Oriental Gas Company of Dallas.

Actual drilling operations will begin in about ten days or two weeks.

BANZHAF-BALCH

On Tuesday morning, August 17, at 7 o'clock, a happy couple drove to the home of Rev. R. W. Leazer, pastor of the First Baptist church, and were quietly married in the presence of only a few relatives and friends. They were Miss Lois Balch and W. C. Banzhaf, both of this city.

The bride, a striking brunette, never looked more charming than in her wedding frock of rosewood satin tulle with brocade yoke of harmonizing colors. A chic little hat, patent leather laced pumps, with trimming which matched the hose, as well as the other accessories, completed a handsome costume. The groom was attired in a suit of dark blue serge with invisible hairline stripe.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party drove to the home of the bride and, after changing her dress to a going away dress of navy blue georgette, the happy couple immediately departed, amid showers of rice and good wishes, for a short honeymoon trip to Houston, Galveston and other points on the coast.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Laura Balch of this city, and has resided in Temple for seven years, the past four of which she spent in the employ of Cheeves Brothers and company, where a wide circle of friends learned to love and respect her for her many charming, womanly qualities.

The groom has been a resident of Temple for the past seven years, during which time he has been a valued employ of the Santa Fe railroad, locating here soon after his discharge from the army war service, he has built for himself a reputation of solid, sterling manhood among his acquaintances.

After August 22, Mr. and Mrs. Banzhaf will be at home to their many friends, in an apartment, at 607 South Eleventh street.—Temple Telegram.

OUR SUPERIOR CIVILIZATION

The American people have always boasted loudly of the superiority of their civilization. The same spirit is manifested in Europe, where their civilization, from which we derived ours, is claimed to be the most enlightened ever developed on this planet.

But over in Asia, which was a center of culture at a time when wild beasts and wilder men were the lords of America and Europe, they say that the civilization of our western lands is proving itself very defective.

The World War made a great change in the way Europe and America were regarded. Up to that time there was a very powerful tendency in the rest of the world to imitate our progress, and our science, our philosophy, and our political methods were rapidly being copied.

But now they are looking us over in a more critical spirit. What is the use of all our science and commerce, they ask, if it is going to blow up in a war that creates such terrible destruction and sorrow and imposes such burdens upon the people?

They look askance more than ever before on our religion, and they ask what Christianity has to teach them, if its disciples can't dwell in peace together. Such a taunt is of course unfair, for if the principles of Christianity had been applied in this case, no war could have occurred. But the so-called Christian nations have got to mend their ways very decidedly, before they can persuade the older nations of Asia to adopt their philosophy and their religion.

Such contrasts suggest that with all our science and civilization, the American people have a great deal to learn. The nations of Asia have been unprogressive, but they have a quietness of spirit and a calm philosophy that is needed in our feverish days, and which would work for peace and harmony between peoples.

CHILDREN'S VACATIONS

Some children give their parents more trouble through the vacation period than they do all the rest of the year. While the children are in schools, they have no time to become restless. But when school is over, it is a constant problem to know what to do with them. Unless they have some definite occupation, they may get into serious mischief.

This is one reason why summer camps have become so enormously popular for boys and girls. The mere fact that the children are regulated during this trying period, is enough of itself to make the camps worth all they cost.

Many families, however, do not feel they can afford to send their children to camps, nor can they give them country vacations. So they have the problem of deciding what shall be done with them at home during this long period.

The old idea, or lack of idea, was commonly to let them drift through the summer, allowing them to have a good time in an aimless way. Of course families in country towns or on farms commonly had regular tasks for the children, which have generally spent many weeks in idle loafing.

Many boys are far better off to go out on some farm to work than they would be idling around home. If placed in a family where their welfare will be carefully considered, the experience should be useful to them.

After children get old enough to do some regular work, they are much better off to have some responsibility resting on them. A job in a store, or carrying newspapers, or working in someone's garden, or housework for girls, if not too hard for their age, would be better than loafing around home. Idleness never developed character.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF TOWNS

A man connected with a highly successful Chamber of Commerce was recently asked as to what in his opinion is the most practical way of development in a city.

The most practical thing, he said, is first to make a careful study of your town to see what it is adopted for and what kind of thing it does the best there. If it has been successful in a certain type of manufacturing, it is probable that that kind of manufacturing could be still further developed. If its best hold is as a distributing center for the outlying country, then you would probably do best to give first thought to an effort to make it still better known as a distributing center. If it is a country town dependent mostly on farming, it should study the science of successful agricultural production and marketing.

Many cities have seemed to imagine that if they could once get some manufacturing industry started there, the thing would necessarily be a success. In many cases they would pay liberal inducements to get such an industry started, and then the natural difficulties prevented success. Perhaps no help could be secured to do that type of work. In any community people have certain types of skill, and dependence should be placed on developing those aptitudes.

That does not prove that a town can not go in for diversified industries, and that because it has always made certain particular articles, it must always stick to just those things. But it does mean that the type of skill required has to be considered.

Any community can be developed, if its prospects are handled right, and if energy is applied to the task. There are so many places that are inclined to stick in the old rut, that a town where people are persistent and where they use intelligence is bound to give service that will shine by comparison.

CIVIC CAMPAIGNS

The old idea of "everyone for himself" in a city or town is now seen to be obsolete, and a community where that spirit prevails will not make a gain in population or wealth. The people must get together, show willingness to co-operate, and someone must do a good deal of work, and some must contribute something.

Some towns have spread eagle speeches on city and town progress and improvement, but they do but little real work. After absorbing a good dinner and applauding the good speeches, the people go home and forget all about it until the next dinner.

What is needed to accomplish progress in a city, is for some organization or organizations to survey the needs of the place, decide what are the more obvious lacks, and go to work to supply those deficiencies. That takes organization, system, and energy, but the results pay many times over.

THE REWARDS OF SERVICE

When people are asked to do work in civic organizations, they sometimes remark that they can't afford to give any time to such efforts.

Can they afford, however, to refuse all such calls?

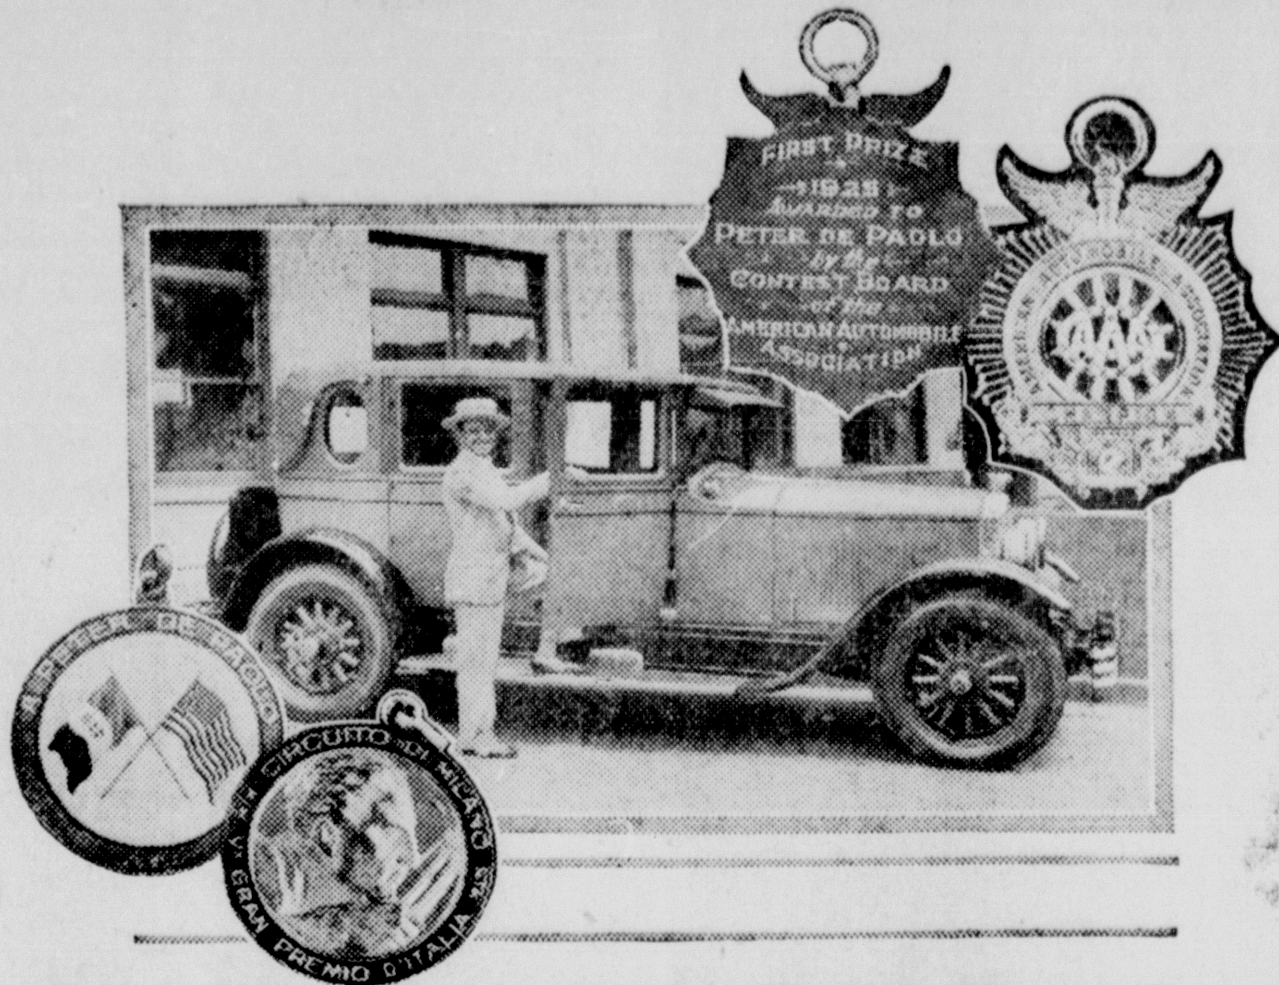

If people keep turning down these opportunities for service, the impression is given unless some really good reason appears, that they are not much interested in the community causes.

But if they are willing in a cheerful way to take their share of the burdens, people look to them for advice and direction, and they get the benefits that come from broad acquaintanceship. They become leaders in their home cities and honors and prosperity are apt to come to that type of people. Those who give, are pretty apt to get. That has been proved many times in Cameron.

EASY TO DARKEN
YOUR GRAY HAIRYou Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea
and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

Race Champion Picks Buick Brougham

PETER DEPAOLO, adorned with the $3,500 medal which he won as 1925 automobile speedway champion, came to Flint recently to take delivery of a Buick car.

DePaolo's new Buick, a 1927 brougham, is his fourth car of this make in the last two years. In fact, he has never owned any other make.

In explaining his preference for Buicks, DePaolo said that the valve-in-head engine, for ordinary driving as well as on the race track, proved superior to any other type. "My Buicks, with their valve-in-head engines and mechanical four wheel brakes, have given me wonderful performance and the best of service," DePaolo stated. "That is the reason why I have never bought any other make of car. Although my previous Buicks have been wonders on the road and have given great satisfaction, I believe the 1927 Buick is truly what the makers say it is, the greatest Buick ever built. It is certainly the greatest car I have ever driven. Acceleration from a creep to 75 miles an hour is literally without vibration. The 1927 Buick sets a new standard of performance for cars of any make, no matter what their price. I was amazed at the marvelous performance of this car, and at the luxury of its fittings and trim."

DePaolo, in addition to his championship medal, carries another presented to him personally by Premier Mussolini of Italy which designates him as "Knight of Speed." He is also an honorary member of the Italian Hundred Mile an Hour Club, and wears its emblem, also a present from Mussolini, in his coat lapel. This emblem, DePaolo says, gains instant recognition in Italy for anyone wearing it.

DePaolo left Flint for Charlotte, N. C., where he will compete in a race. At present the little Italian driver is in second place for the 1926 championship, pressing Harry Hartz hard for the lead.

15,000 HEAR GOVERNOR OPEN RUN OFF CAMPAIGN

WILLING TO BEAR CRITICISM TO KEEP STATE FROM CONTROL OF KLAN SHE SAYS

The largest crowd ever gathered in the city park attended the Ferguson rally here Saturday night.

It was estimated by Ferguson leaders at 15,000 and the lowest estimates of the six or seven newspaper men here, who were in the center of the crowd and could not see the outer edges and those listening in automobiles, were 8,000 or more.

Three loud-speakers made the words of the speakers audible to remote corners of the park and the streets were blocked tight with parked automobiles.

Introduced by Marshall V. C. Marshall, Heidenheimer farmer-merchant-gin man, introduced Governor Ferguson, pointing out that "the most serious charge that they have brought against Mrs. Ferguson is that she reduced the taxes 12 cents—and she can do that and not hurt the schools."

"The governor was cheered as she arose and began her address. 'I did not resign and will not withdraw and turn the state over unopposed to the ku klux,' she said in a firm voice.

Louisiana Woman Tells Why
She Relies On Cardui For Her Troubles.

"When just a girl," writes Mrs. G. W. Britt, of Haughton, La., "I suffered quite a bit at times—I would be so tired all the time that I didn't really enjoy anything."

"I took three bottles of Cardui and very soon, I saw quite a difference."

"Later on in life, after I got married, I was very weak and nervous, before my baby came. I remembered what Cardui had done for me when a girl and sent for it again."

"I only had taken two bottles when I felt so much stronger and better."

"I am a great believer in Cardui because I know it did me good."

"Cardui should do you good too. Try it."

"I will not consent to any one holding office who has violated the election laws and I will not turn the state over to the oil companies. If the people want a ku klux supported candidate, let them go to the polls and say so."

Text Of Address

After the first few minutes the governor referred to a typewritten speech. Her address follows:

My friends and neighbors: I come home tonight to say my last word in this political campaign. As everybody knows I entered public life because of my conception of a public duty. I am continuing in public life for the same reason. I am no longer impelled by personal ambition, and whether I suffer defeat or gain a victory in this campaign matters but little to me. I am fighting for a principle for the rights of the people and for the education of the children. Let me again say boldly that I did not resign and I will not withdraw from this contest and turn this state over to the ku klux klan. I will not consent that anybody shall hold office in Texas that has violated their election laws. I will not leave the fields to the oil companies of the state who are fighting to keep a full school term from our children in the public schools. If the people want a Klan supported governor then let them go to the polls and say so. If they do not want such a governor I am willing to bear the cruel shafts of criticism to give them a chance to say so. If they want a candidate who breaks your election laws let them say so. If they do not, again I throw myself into the breach and give them an opportunity to say so. If they want to turn this state over to the oil companies who want to defeat the gasoline tax let them go to the polls and say so. If they do want the gasoline tax for the building of roads and the education of the children let them remember that I have not deserted my post of duty and my name is still on the ticket and they can go to the polls and say so. I remain in this race in order that the line may be clearly drawn and if the opposition shall win I shall bow to the will of the people. On the other hand if I shall win in this contest I shall expect from the opposition the same respect to the people's will. On with the battle."

The speeches were broadcast over the Waco radio station by a leased wire from the park to Waco and were heard in many homes here as well as over the state.—Temple Telegram.

Tiny Finds a Way

By HOMER B. KING

(© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

TO BIG JIM CARNAHAN—Lippy—and Tiny Perkin, had come the parting of the ways.

It was the finding of a rich old river bed at the end of the fifty-foot tunnel they had driven into a hill that caused the trouble; after years of seeking, the possibility of sudden wealth had suddenly awakened in Lippy the devil's rapacity.

Today the last of the gravel they had wheeled out was being sluiced and Carnahan had driven Tiny away, swearing he would twist his skinny old neck if he came back before the work was finished. Sneaking around through the brush, Tiny hid close to where the big fellow was working, and for two hours watched him, and before leaving he knew Carnahan was robbing him.

When Carnahan entered the cabin Tiny greeted him in his usual cheery manner.

"How'd she cleap, Lippy, boy?" he chirped.

"Not much—that's all," Carnahan growled, dropping two slim buckskin just bags on a slab table.

An hour after Carnahan took from beneath his bunk two other bags of gold dust.

"Pull up!" he ordered. "I'm going to divide what we've got."

"What's the idea, boy? Can't we do that when we get to Mt. Idaho?"

"No! We're splittin' right now."

"Why?"

"Because," Lippy rasped, thrusting his heavy face forward, "because, old man, you leave tomorrow for outside. I'm through supportin' you."

"Why, Lippy, you ain't supportin' me—our claim's more than doin' that."

Carnahan laughed shortly.

"Our claim?" he scoffed. "Ain't you woke up yet to the fact that you ain't got no claim? It's mine, old man."

After pouring half of the second bag on a piece of paper, folding it and pushing it toward Tiny, he rose, and first placing his gold beneath his lacket pillow he dropped on his bunk.

For a time Tiny sat silent. "Boy," he at last quivered, "what you've done ain't square, but I've lived a long time and seen lots of things—and understand. I've found out that gold madness is worse than most anything a man can get—and Lippy you've got it!"

"Shut up or I'll—"

"See," Tiny interrupted, "I'd make you murder your best friend. Come on, son, let's get away. We'll go down to Mt. Idaho and spend the winter."

Carnahan leaped to his feet. "Cut it, you old rat! I know what you are drivin' at—you want to get me out where you can make a fight for half of this claim. Well, you don't do it—and tomorrow you git!"

It was after midnight when Tiny, leaving Carnahan snoring loudly, slipped out and hurried up the creek to the tunnel. Lighting a stub of candle he went inside. In half an hour he found Carnahan's cache. His next move was to stick fuses into several sticks of giant. Five fuses he capped; the others he only tied to the powder and dropped them into a sack which he hung across his shoulder, leaving the fuses dangling. Next he placed two of the leaded sticks at the tunnel mouth, lighted them and ran down the creek toward the cabin.

He was still running when the explosion came and small rocks rattled about him. He heard the roar of sliding earth and knew the tunnel was no more. Next he heard Carnahan yelling his name as he ran toward him, and slipping into the brush he let him rush past. Then he ran on to the cabin.

First he took the gold from beneath Carnahan's pillow. Next he carried out their remaining grub, Carnahan's clothes and their blankets. Dividing the food he put his part into his sack; the other half he left on top of the blankets. Placing two sticks of giant in the doorway he again ran. Then came the roar and the cabin was a jumble of logs.

"Two minutes after, raging like a crazy man, Carnahan came running back, and Tiny, swinging about his head a stick of dynamite with lighted fuse, yelling like a mad man, leaped toward him.

"Git out of the way!" he screamed. "Git! I'm comin'. I'm the powder man—powder man!" he sang, and disappeared into the bush as the roar of the powder he had thrown sounded.

Lippy gave one look and ran as though devils were pursuing him.

In Mt. Idaho, two days later, Lippy, red-eyed and haggard from sleepless nights of terror, stood before Sheriff Adams.

"I tell you, sheriff," he was saying, "he's plum crazy. Poor little devil. Way, man, he done his best to blow me to smithereens with dynamite. He did blow up our tunnel and cabin. We'd made the biggest cleanup of our lives, too, and he blowed it plum to kingdom come, but—"

"Hello, Lippy—figgered I'd find you here," Tiny called from the doorway. "Beat me in by an eyelash, didn't you?"

"Look out!" Lippy yelled, dodging behind a desk. "Look out! He's got the powder in that sack! Look out!"

Tiny grinned.

"Don't get excited, sheriff. I throwed the powder away 'fore I got into town. I got suthin' better'n powder here," and he dumped on the desk six buckskin bags. "Wish you'd weigh that sheriff. Half's mine and half's Lippy's. Him and me had a little argument back at the mine. Howsomer, it's settled now, ain't it Lippy?"

ONE STRAP POPULAR IN NEW FALL FOOTWEAR IS COMMENT OF W. B. LEVY

Commenting on the new fall footwear a large shipment of which he has just received for his exclusive ladies ready to wear store in Cameron W. B. Levy said:

"Just as one finds the majority of evening slippers bearing one strap, so are a great many smart women wearing one strap afternoon shoes. The oxford has declined slightly in favor. Not so many of them are seen with formal afternoon wear—they are now relegated to their proper place as accessories for the tailored frock. And too, those which one sees are all cut rather high—they have fewer cut-outs, and more trimming is applied upon the shoe.

"A snake in the grass is a fearful, loathsome thing (as Eve can testify)—but snake skin shoe upon the foot is fascinating and to be envied. All the reptile leathers—snakes, lizard, alligator, are still being worn—not so much now to form the entire shoe, but more for trimming—as straps or applied upon patent leather or brown or tan kid.

"Black suede and brown suede, of course, return with winter, and with the threatened revival of velvet afternoon dresses, there is some talk of velvet shoes—trimmed with gold kid. It remains to be seen whether they will take. However, the important point in shoes this year is wear either shoes to harmonize with the costume, or use sharp contrasts.
